Startup Law 101: Important Legal Considerations for a Strong Foundation

The City of Burbank, in partnership with TechFire, is featuring a look at legal considerations for entrepreneurs. Joining us will be Patrick Anding and Kyle Funn, attorneys with Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati, the premier legal advisor to technology, life sciences, and other growth enterprises worldwide. Patrick and Kyle focus on corporate and securities law, advising private and public companies on a wide spectrum of legal matters. Without a strong legal foundation, even the best startups can fail — don't miss this important session of Burbank Tech Talks! And don't miss the expanded time for networking, as well!
